- * Small-sized entrepreneurs are exempt from reporting value added tax. In simplified terms, this means that regulations applying to small-sized entrepreneurs as stated in § 19 of the German Value Added Tax Act (UStG) are applicable if overall turnover including possible value added taxes did not exceed 17,500 Euros in the previous calendar year and is not expected to exceed 50,000 Euros in the current calendar year. This provision does not apply to persons whose permanent residence is outside of Germany.
-  Teaching / Knowledge transfer in the context of the academic education / curricula is exempt from value added tax according to § 4 No. 21b) UstG.
-  If persons whose residence is outside of Germany perform paid services for the Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin, then according to § 13b UStG (im plementation of article 196 C ouncil Directive 2006/112/EC of 28 November 2006 on the common system of value added tax) the Humboldt Universität zu Berlin is responsible for paying value added tax. In this case no value added tax shall be displayed in the invoice.

(PLEASE NOTE: This is a sum mary of certain im plications of Germ an legislation on value added tax. We strongly recommend consulting your tax advisor or your tax and revenue officer for further clarification.)
